CANANDAIGUA WON

Beat Local Basketball Players Right Off the Reel.

FINAL SCORE WAS 25 TO 21

Auburnians Didn't Get Under Headway Until the Second Half Opened.

In a game bristling with lively, clever work, the Canandaigua Y. M. C. A. basketball team defeated the Auburn five at that city last night in a Tri-City league game by the score of 25 to 21.

The Canandaigua men started to score from the first toss-up and scored 15 points to the Auburn team's one in the first five minutes of play.

Auburn's representatives, on the other hand, appeared to have gained in strength during the resting spell between halves, for they opened the second half in very aggressive style and did not let up in speed throughout the period.

Although having the lead by a few points, the Canandaigua men played entirely on the defensive nearly every minute during the second period.

The Auburn men threatened to overtake their opponents during this half, scoring 20 points while the home team added only 10 points to their lead. The game ended with Auburn still on the aggressive and had the half been five minutes longer, the Auburn five would have won.

The line-up and summary: Auburn. G. F. T. Holmes, F. Donnelly, C. Poole, C. Higgins, G. Flynn. Totals 20. Canandaigua. G. F. T. Elton, F. Davis, E. Evans, G. O'Brien, G. Nevin. Totals 25.

It will also witness the drawing for a silk dress pattern now on exhibition in the window of Foster, Ross & Co. There is little doubt that the house will be filled tonight and that the majority of the audience will be women. Two performances tomorrow will conclude the successful engagement.

The Skaneateles Pastorate.

The assignment of a pastor to succeed the Rev. F. J. Purcell has been delayed by Bishop P. A. Ludden although it is believed his successor will be named in a few days. Committees from St. Mary's and St. Bridget's churches have communicated with the bishop in the interest of Father Higgins, but they have received little encouragement. Bishop Ludden recognizes Father Higgins' magnificent work during the five years he has been in this parish and he is not unmoved by the unanimous desire of the parishioners that he be retained, but the greatest obstacle to his appointment is a rule that no assistant pastor shall succeed his superior. This rule is of the bishop's own creation and it is possible that he may make an exception in Father Higgins' case. In any event, it is said the young priest is to be given a parish.

THAT FISH NET BILL

Opponents of Repeal Are in Evidence at Albany.

ROGERS TO THE RESCUE

Broome County Man Wins Out and Hearing Will Be Given Next Tuesday.

Albany, Feb. 1.—A bill which has interested all the sportsmen of central New York for several years was the subject of a debate in the Assembly yesterday. The measure repeals the law allowing net fishing in Cayuga lake on the Seneca county side.

Sportsmen in Cayuga county, Broome and even in Onondaga have long complained that the net fishing on the Seneca shore has almost depleted the lake of fish. A repeal bill passed the Assembly last year, but failed in the Senate. Senator Wilcox, who was attacked by the sportsmen of his county for not putting the bill through, got on the job early this year, and a repeal bill introduced by him was handed down in the Assembly yesterday.

The principal opponent of the measure is ex-District Attorney of Seneca County, Dudley of Cayuga asked to keep them away from excess. "Our employees are superior to those of other railroads, and no man or set of men can be classified as excellent, or in other words, there is no good man who cannot be better. And it is the opinion of the officers and directors of the company that our employees can be made efficient by being always sober."

Children's day at the Y. M. C. A. rink tomorrow. Admission 5 cents.

FULTON IS ACTIVE.

Twenty-six of 80 Shares of Baseball Stock Sold This Week.

Fulton, Feb. 1.—The stockholders of the Fulton Baseball Association will hold a meeting at the City hall this evening. The report of William McGinley of the proceedings of the Seneca Falls meeting of the Empire League representatives will be heard.

The matter of engaging a manager for the team will also be discussed and the report of the committee which is soliciting for the sale of the company's stock will be given. It was said today that 26 of the 80 shares have been disposed of thus far this week.

At the Church of Christ.

"Be not deceived, God is not mocked. Whatsoever a man sows, that shall he also reap," was the Text of Rev. A. Braden's sermon last evening at the Church of Christ. A large audience was present and all were deeply impressed by the earnest words. Five accepted the gospel invitation. The singing evangelist, J. E. Sturgis, sang two solos, one of which was a farewell song after the sermon, as he finished his services in song and departed for his home in Indiana last evening. He has sung the love of Jesus into many hearts. The special series of meetings will continue tonight and Sunday. No service Saturday.

Furs at about one-half their former price.

Another Interesting Service. At the First M. E. church last night a good sized audience listened to a thoughtful discourse by Rev. F. J. Smith who has been assisting Dr. Rosenkrantz during the week. Mrs. W. L. Wallace, the evangelistic singer of Syracuse, was present and charmed the audience with her sweet voice, playing her own accompaniment on an auto-harp. Mrs. H. A. Tidd also sang during the praise services. Tonight the praise service beginning at 7:30 o'clock will be in charge of Sunday school department, Miss Dorothy Van-Kleeck will speak on The Man in the Sycamore Tree.

At the Woman's Union.

Tomorrow, Saturday, evening at 8 o'clock, the entertainment at the Woman's union will take the form of an illustrated Magazine. The leading article will be given by Miss Steel on Norway, the editorial page by Miss Janet Alexander, and Miss Florence Webster of the information page, as the Lady from Philadelphia, will be present to answer questions. Miss Jennie H. Stoppard will take the story page. The musical department will be in charge of Miss Ethel Carrington. Miss Grace Flint will present the new spring fashions and the latest styles from Paris, and Miss Alice Wadsworth will take charge of the Twice Told Tales. The usual advertisements will be illustrated by young ladies in costume and an evening of fun and interest is assured.

Last Saturday the talk by Doctor Gilmore on Some Emergencies was most helpful and the audience went away prepared to meet some of the everyday emergencies of the home life.

The music by the orchestra of the Church of Christ was inspiring and provoked frequent encores, and Miss Ethel Crane's piano solos were played with remarkable ease and precision for so young a musician. All women and girls are cordially invited to be present at all these entertainments.

MUST TAKE PLEDGE.

Order Affects All Employees in Operating Department of Lehigh.

It is stated that orders will be issued by the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company within the next few days requiring each and every employe in the operating department of the company to fill out a blank form, which stipulates expressly that they have taken a temperance pledge.

How kindly the men will take to a rule of this kind cannot be determined but a great many who were questioned about the matter yesterday at Sayre by The Times stated that it would be the best thing that ever happened if the company would insist upon order of that kind, as some want but the excuse to refrain from intoxicants. It was their opinion that there would not be the slightest objection.

While all employes, especially engineers and conductors have been admonished not to drink intoxicants, when on duty, and warned not to imbibe to excess while away from work, yet never in the history of any railroad has an order been as sweeping as this one. It reads that all employes in the operating department while on duty or otherwise, must abstain from liquor.

"We realize that this is an innovation," said an official of the company, "but I cannot understand why any employe, especially one that has a hazardous occupation, when his own life and the lives of others depend upon his clear eye, clear mind and strong arm, should touch liquor. It is true that some men are by nature indiscreet and require the restraining influence of a pledge to keep them away from excess."

Assemblyman Rogers protested against this step, and after some further debate it was decided to advance the bill and refer it to committee. A hearing will be given next Tuesday.

Ithaca Is Interested.

The Ithaca News takes up the cudgel for rod and line fishermen in the following editorial: "The Cayuga Lake fishermen are again anxious over the attempt which is being made at Albany by Senator Wilcox in behalf of the Cayuga County Fish and Game association to have the Cayuga lake fish law repealed. This is the second attempt made by Senator Wilcox and the Cayuga county fishermen have hopes that it will be more successful than the one last year."

"The law allows the use of fykes and seines in the waters of Cayuga lake between Oct. 1 and March 31, for catching bullheads, suckers, dogfish and eels, if a license is granted by the state forest, fish and game commission."

"The Cayuga county club has long contended that the fishermen are taking many game fish from the lake with those which they are allowed to take by law. Many of the farmers along the west shore of the lake during winter months make considerable money fishing with nets in accordance with the statute. It is these who are greatly benefited by the law."

"Last year, when the fight for a repeal of the law was on, Assemblyman Mear opposed the attempt, and the result was that it was effectually blocked. This year the assemblyman at Albany, Mr. Harper, is a Democrat, and it is doubtful if he will have sufficient influence to keep the law on the books. It is Mr. Harper's intention to have the law amended so as to make it illegal to possess the game fish which might be taken from the lake during the closed season."

"If there was no market, the few fishermen who do not live up to the provisions would have no objection in taking the game fish from the lake."

"There should be no politics in this matter, but, unfortunately, there is. Every one who has an interest in fishing, not as a professional but as an amateur, should be interested in saving the game fish in the lake."

OPPOSITION IS STRONG.

But Wilcox and Dudley Believe Bill Will Pass.

Senator Wilcox and Assemblyman Dudley are home from Albany and have personally informed Secretary Adams of the Fish and Game club, which is interested in the repeal of the law allowing the use of nets in Cayuga lake, that there is some opposition to the bill. Mr. Wilcox says it has passed the Senate all right and there is no trouble there, but there is trouble in the Assembly.

Assemblyman Dudley stated he thought the bill would go through without opposition, but he says there has been more excitement over this bill than anything else that has come before the Assembly this year.

It came up yesterday and they finally referred it back to the committee for hearing Tuesday noon. This is a matter of courtesy and does not indicate that there is a shadow of a chance of defeating the bill, but there is strong opposition from some of the Democrats in the House with Oliver, who is the Democratic leader, at their head. Evidently politics are cutting more figure than the merits of the bill.

Assemblyman Rogers of Broome county, who is well known in Auburn and who promised Secretary Adams while in Binghamton a month ago, that he would support the bill, could, as reported by Doctor Dudley as affording him splendid assistance and is hustling to help all he can to get the law repealed.

Mr. Rogers is one of the most powerful men in the Assembly and his support is very valuable to the club's interests. He is backed up by the Game club of Binghamton which is also helping the Cayuga county fellows. The Cayuga County club will be represented at the hearing Tuesday and has every reason to believe from present indications and the splendid help they have from both senator and assemblyman that the law will be repealed this year.

BEAT THE GUNNERS

Athletics Started Badly But Their Finish Was Strong.

FANNING WAS IN FINE FORM

Rolled High Individual Score of 206 and Also Had the High Total of 563.

The Gun club bowling team was treated very rudely by the members of Manager Signor's Athletics at the Market street alleys last evening. The two teams clashed in a league match and the gunners started in to administer a crushing defeat to Athletics.

It is one thing to start on such a proposition and it is another thing to carry it to a successful finish. The Athletics lived up to their name and when the brawny arms had completed the work of sending the big spheres down the alleys for three games they had trimmed the gunners two out of the three and rolled a total which made the gunners dig down in the jeans and pay for the evening's rolling.

The defeat of the Gun club establishes the Iroquois firmly in first place in the league race. Fanning of the Athletics, made the high individual score of 206 and the high total of 563 for the three games. Jim Carr of the gunners did the best work for that aggregation, making the good average of 179 for the three games. Captain Whyte was away below his usual form.

ROCHESTER, TOO.

Some Milk Dealers Don't Like Enforcement of Ordinance. The recent attempt of an agent of the milk dealers to force a repeal of the ordinances governing the sale of milk in this city finds expression also among the milkmen in Rochester as the following extract from the New York Journal of Medicine will show: "The health officer of Rochester, N. Y., Dr. G. W. Goler, is one of those rare men who have brought honor and distinction to a public office. The administration of the health bureau of this city by Doctor Goler has attracted wide attention and has done more to bring Rochester into favorable notice of the world than anything in its history. If there is anything in the administration of this office which should confirm the citizens of Rochester in their faith in their health officer it is that the milk dealers who wish to sell unclean milk are to a man against him."

"Now come the milk men with an amendment to the city ordinance transferring the power to enforce the milk ordinance from the health officer to another city department, with the view of emasculating the law. The last monthly report of the health bureau showed a number of cases of typhoid which were traced by Doctor Goler to milk men, and the reason for the proposed amendment is obvious. To the typhoid disseminating men of Rochester the words of John Thunbulla apply: "No man ever felt the bitter draw with good opinion of the law."

Tullix of Rochester and G. V. Roberts of Port Byron. The company now holds two large tracts in the city of Rochester which at the present time are developing at a most extraordinary rate of progress. PLAGIARISM IN PRISON.

It Has Even Extended to the Columns of the Star of Hope.

Hardly had George Burnham Jr. learned his way about the printing office in Sing Sing prison when he discovered and it became generally known yesterday that plagiarism had invaded the literary columns of the Star of Hope, says the New York Sun.

The sad truth became known when a letter from Auburn prison came to Sing Sing No. 54,179, the gifted editor of the Star of Hope, and his general assistant, Sing Sing No. 55,097. The letter said:

"Dear Editor.—There is an inmate in Auburn prison who has taken the liberty, without my permission, to send two of my songs to the Star, and both of them have been published—one on October 15, and the other on the 27th of the same month. They are entitled Get Your Money Any Way You Can and My Little Golden Haired Girl. I do not know the man's name; his number is 27,588. I composed both of the songs in 1905, and there are men here who will certify that I am the author of them."

"The only reason I can assign for 27,588's coming into possession of them is that I allowed him to look the songs over and he copied them. I thought when the first song was published in the Star under the number 27,588 that it was through a mistake on his part, but he could not have made a mistake with the second one. I trust that this notice will prevent 27,588, if he has any more of my songs to publish, from doing so. Respectfully, 27,611."

As tending to show the deliberate character of the plagiarism of the first song mentioned, the offender is quoted as saying that he felt it his duty to give wider publicity to a composition which he hoped would become in time a rallying cry and battle hymn for crackmen, "dips," traction companies, bank wreckers, Federal senators, black hand societies and insurance officials.

As a result of this revelation the current issue of the Star of Hope has this announcement on its editorial page: "Plagiarism, Take heed: We had full faith and confidence in our contributors, never for a moment supposing any of them would stoop to so low, so base and ignoble a trick as to submit to us as their own articles which had been written by others. We now believe that some miserable, vile, degenerate inmate has imposed on us in this manner."

"We intend to suggest to Superintendent Collins the adoption of drastic means of punishing the vile and contemptible specimens of human beings who stoop to plagiarism. And our hope is that the punishment will be of such severity that it will operate as a preventive to any further efforts which may have been entertained by the plagiarists."

"Plagiarists—be careful. Take heed and stop your operations before there is meted out to you the punishment you have so rightly earned."
