Le The Carriers of Moravia High School

One morning before the last bell rung, Evelyn Winters and Mary Van Arsdale were seen conversing earnestly in the hall. Their conversation was as follows:

Evelyn Winters: "Mary, will you wait for me a minute? I've something I wish to read to you."

Mary Van Arsdale: "Surely, Evelyn. What is it?"

Evelyn Winters: "You know Miss Carley asked me to write a report on the social activities for the Moravia Paper and I want your approval. Listen with ears wide open, Mary."

"Among our social items, we have a list of visitors. Alice Spafford visited the school last Friday. Miss Marian Bodine of Owasco had two visitors last week from Skaneateles who visited the school. They were Leslie Cains and Walter Bucklett."

Last Friday evening the Seniors held their Autumn Ball. Many invitations were issued and the Ball was attended largely by both the Alumni and the undergraduates. The music was furnished by the "Musical Miteeters" of Auburn. Refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served. There were many guests from Aurora, Auburn, Groton, New Hope, Scipio and Kelloggville. The Senior Class cleared $26 on the Ball."

Evelyn Winters: "Here comes Dorothy McAllister with her class report. Let's stay and hear what she has to say."

Mary Van Arsdale: "All right! Read your report Dorothy while Evelyn and I jot down all the errors."

"The Freshman Class is one of initiative and spirit. They have ordered a banner for their class. The colors are maroon and white. The Freshmen are planning to sell candy and have more food sales in the future."

"What is the matter with the Sophomores and Juniors? We haven't heard of any of their class activities?"

The cast for the Senior Play has been decided upon and Miss Carley has announced the Business and Production Staffs. The following make up the Business Staff:

Advertising Manager—Gordon Mathers.
 Assistants—Melba Hewitt and Susie Nemic.
 Business Manager—Kenneth Herriek.
 Assistants—Jennie Irene Morris, Charles Rounds and Marcus Wright.
 The Production Staff:
 Stage Manager—Gordon Kahler.
 Assistants—Gordon Mather, Alanson Church and Roland Robinson.
 Scene Director—Louise Basil.
 Property Manager—Madeline Harris.
 Assistants—Elsie Andrews, Edith Storrs and Civil Terill."

Evelyn Winters: "That's great Dorothy. I haven't even one mistake down for you. Well—What's the matter with Betty O'Brien and Pauline Aber? They seem to be having an argument."

Pauline Aber: "Gee, I can't tell if I've got this athletic report paraphrased correctly. It's going to be 'tough sailing' for me if it isn't."

Mary Van Arsdale: "Read it, Pauline, and if there's any need for a new paragraph, we'll jell you."

"As football season has come to a close, the pupils are looking forward for basketball."

The boys commenced to practice last Wednesday night. Very few boys turned out for the practice but it is hoped some of our boys will think it over and come out for practice next time. The girls will meet this Monday night."

Evelyn Winters: "Well, what's the matter with those paragraphs? Nothing that I can see, unless you need a few more commas or something."

Mary Van Arsdale: "Oh, never mind about the commas. Let's hear Betty's report on the assembly program."

"The report of the Assembly, November 20, is as follows:
 The program opened with a selection by the school orchestra, followed by announcements by Mr. Linton. Among the announcements, he told of the Training Class' visit to Syracuse State School. On Wednesday he said school would begin at 8:30 and close at 12:30. All pupils were to please notify their bus drivers and parents. The program for the morning was sponsored by the English teacher, Miss Carley. A selection was read by Arlene Frine entitled 'President Hoover's Thanksgiving Proclamation. A play entitled 'The Trick of the Trade' was presented next. 'The Girl' was played by Helen Colley, the 'Matinee Hero' by Paul Bailey. Another play called 'A Pair of Lunatics' was the last one staged. 'He or Captain Fielding' was played by Archie Roberts. 'She or Clara Manners,' by Florence Donald. Both plays were exceptionally good. The parts played by the pupils were very well portrayed."

Pauline Aber: "That's great, Betty. Let's take all our reports to Katherine Pendergast and let her put them in the paper."

Evelyn Winters: "Yes, we will right away and get it off our minds. I hope Miss Carley won't find too many mistakes."
